HONG KONG ADVENTIST COLLEGE

Hong Kong Adventist College (HKAC), established in 1903, is a four-year liberal arts college founded and supported by the Seventh-day Adventist Church. It has a strong tradition of providing quality education with an emphasis on developing the potential of the whole person. The integration of faith and learning provides a unique academic environment for students from a variety of cultures and religious backgrounds.

THE PROGRAMME

Founded on Christian principles of love and concern, the Department of Psychology aims to integrate faith, knowledge, and health in training proficient professionals in psychology. We provide a culturally diverse community that parallels the growing of diversity in the healthcare and academic professions. Students will leave this program with habits of lifelong learning and a dedication to serve society through teaching, researching, and counseling with competence, compassion, and commitment.

STUDENTS TRIBUTES

Elisa Chongbang, Graduate, 2017
Studying psychology at Hong Kong Adventist College was a great experience. I had chance to learn in a multicultural environment, attend international conferences and do field experience in the Philippines. English medium of instruction at HKAC helped me understand the theory and teachings to a greater extent. In these 4 years I have become more empathetic, compassionate yet headstrong and confident. I have developed a deep sense of importance of mental health and well-being in individual and communities and aspire to contribute my professional career in doing so.

Lawrence DE VERA, Graduate, 2016
I developed closed relationships with teachers who care a lot about their students and are willing to help them if they seek it. Through the close guidance and nurture of these teachers, I have grown as a student and as a person. I have also learned far more valuable lessons through my teachers. I learned that if you care about something and work hard for it, your hard work will pay off. My teachers’ hard work and dedication to their students have shown me this and it has made an impact on my life. It is my goal in the future to give back to others what this school has given to me. Love, dedication, kindness, and the ability to have fellowship with fellow brothers and sisters in Christ.
